

CODE OF CONDUCT

Members are expected to show common courtesy to other members and guests within the Club.

Admission to Functions is by Membership Card plus any admission fee.

All Club functions are for members only unless otherwise stated

A maximum of four Guests per Member are allowed without prior notice. Members will be held responsible for their Guests behaviour.

Members must sign in all of their Guests in the Door Register as this is a strict requirement for Club insurance purposes.

Members and Guests must strictly observe the Dress Code at dances – No Jeans, Jean Skirts of any colour or Trainers. Men are required to wear a collared long or short sleeved shirt, unless otherwise stated.

Serious misconduct by Members or their guests will normally result in the termination of their membership. In this event members have the right of appeal to the committee.

Absolutely no Malicious gossip. No drinking on the dance floor.

If photographs or digital imagery are taken at Club functions please ensure that no members are included in the shot without their prior permission.

Always have your membership card and money ready when you come to a function. This will reduce queuing time at the door.

THANK YOU
